Consignment Agreement

Vintage Inspired Lifestyle Marketplace will be referred to as "V.I."

1. The consignor is the owner of all goods consigned to V.I., and has the legal right to enter into this Consignment Agreement.
2. V.I. retains the right to accept or decline any item for consignment at their sole discretion. V.I. further retains the right to display items for sale as they see fit.
3. Consignors must present all items clean, complete, and free of defects.
4. Retrieving Consignors are responsible for contacting V.I. within seven (7) days of the date of consignment to claim any additional NTY items found during the tagging process. No Thank You (NTY) items unclaimed within (7) days of the date of consignment will be disposed of without notice. Consignors may not assume there are no additional NTY items because their consignment was initially screened.
5. The Consignor may set the list price of their items or authorize V.I. to price items on their behalf. V.I. reserves the right to sell items below their original list price if: the Consignor has authorized a price reduction; V.I. priced the items on the Consignor's behalf; if unsold items are to be donated; or, if items have not sold within the 1st 30, 60, or 90 days.
6. V.I. collects a commission on all goods sold equal to thirty-five percent (35%) of the list price of goods priced $20.01 & over, and fifty percent (50%) of anything priced $20.00 & under. Where an item is sold below the original list price, commission is calculated on the reduced list price. V.I. offers a better consignment percentage if consignor chooses credit at Vintage Inspired Lifestyle Marketplace. V.I. takes a percentage of V.I. commission and donates it to charity. V.I. proudly supports Mercy Connections (www.mercyconnections.org).
7. V.I. does not telephone Consignors regarding their consignment account. A statement will be sent at the end of the consignment period.
8. V.I. does not mail checks as a matter of course. The Consignor is responsible for collecting funds due for items sold, at the store location where the items were consigned, within ninety (90) days of the expiration of each consignment period. Uncollected funds become the property of V.I.
9. Retrieving Consignors must claim unsold items within five (5) days of the expiration date of each consignment period. After 5pm on the exit date, unclaimed items will be disposed of without notice or liability to the Consignor.
10. Retrieving Consignors are responsible for locating, and removing from the sales floor, any unsold items within the five (5) day grace at the expiration of each consignment period. Unsold hard goods are located and removed from the sales floor, by V.I. staff, upon expiration of the consignment period. Retrieving Consignors who retrieve unsold items prior to the consignment expiration date must locate and remove their items from the sales floor. There will be no Customer Service Inquiries generated for early retrievals not located by Consignor.

11. V.I. is not responsible for loss, theft or damage to Consignor goods from any cause whatsoever. Insurance coverage remains the sole responsibility of the Consignor.

Delivery of goods to V.I. constitutes the Consignor's acceptance of the above stated terms. The Consignor's signature on this Consignment Agreement constitutes the Consignor's acknowledgement and understanding of V.I. sales and consignment policies and procedures.
