FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Haley Bishop Exhibits at Vintage Inspired Lifestyle Marketplace in December, Also Group Student Photography Show for First Friday Art

Burlington, VT: (November 20, 2013) Vintage Inspired Lifestyle Marketplace on Flynn Avenue in Burlington is pleased to announce an exhibition by multi-media Burlington artist Haley Bishop, entitled Day Dreaming from December 6th-31st. There will be an opening reception Friday, December 6th, from 5:00 to 8:00pm. Vintage Inspired, A vibrant marketplace for antique dealers, artists and craftspeople, is located at 180 Flynn Avenue, and is open Monday through Saturday from 10am to 5pm and Sunday from 12pm to 4pm.

Also featured on First Friday, December 6th next door to Vintage Inspired at Dok Wright's ContraFlux Studio, is Exposure - a group photography show featuring black and white and color figure photography from students at Burlington College: Larry Arasin, Taylor Bruleigh, John Dubuc, Lisa Eldred, Catherine Haley, Geo Vann. Work will be displayed from December 6th-8th during business hours at ContraFlux Studio, 180 Flynn Avenue in Burlington.

Haley Bishop's Day Dreaming contains whimsical animals, castles in faraway places and favorite Vermont destinations. In her work, she often gives life to her childhood memories, recalling places that were important to her and examining them through the lens of empty space, familiar objects and shapes, and detailed house interiors.

Haley Bishop is a resident of Vermont. She attended Burlington Tech Center, studying Design & Illustration, before achieving her BFA from the School Museum of Fine Arts, Boston and Tufts University. She considers herself an abstract colorist, using pen-and-ink illustration, watercolor, acrylic, and computer scans, Haley transforms images of familiar spaces into colorful, layered mixed-media pieces. More information about Haley's work can be found at <http://www.haleyalyssabishop.com>
