FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Sara Katz Exhibits New Paintings at Vintage Inspired In June

Burlington, VT: (May 28, 2014) Vintage Inspired Lifestyle Marketplace on Flynn Avenue in Burlington is pleased to announce an exhibition of recent work from Vermont artist Sara Katz, June 6th-30th, 2014. There will be an opening reception Friday, June 6th from 5:00 to 8:00pm. Vintage Inspired, A vibrant marketplace for antique dealers, artists and craftspeople, is located at 180 Flynn Avenue, and is open Monday through Saturday from 10am to 5pm and Sunday from 12pm to 4pm.

Sara Katz's paintings are inspired by a sense of landscape in transition. The ambiguity of the imagery suggests a viewer in motion, abstracting the visual world into gesture, color, and texture. Sara seeks a balance between loose, active mark-making and conscious decisions to express a sense of place. Exploring a broader use of mixed media, recent works are a continuation of an interest in the landscape with a preference for invention and imagination. Sara has shown her work in numerous art venues in Burlington as well as in Massachusetts and at the Edgewater Gallery in Middlebury, where more of her work can be seen. Edgewater has also represented her work for the last two years at the Affordable Art Fair in New York. Her work can be found in numerous collections across the country.

Katz was born in 1977 in a small town in southern New Jersey to a Jewish father and Japanese-American mother. After farming vegetables for several years, her parents moved to Cabot, Vermont and began a small greenhouse and nursery business. She and her two younger brothers grew up working at the family business, receiving encouragement in artistic activities from both parents and attending the smallest public school in the state. Her youngest brother, Elliott, became a full-time artist and her brother Jon is PHD candidate in Natural Resources at UVM. Katz went on to Skidmore College where she majored in studio art. She spent a junior semester in Paris, which was where she first began to seriously focus on painting. After graduating from Skidmore in 1999, she moved to Burlington to work for Burlington City Arts and has since held several positions within the organization as it's grown. Today she works full-time as BCA's Assistant Director.

The process of planting, growing and harvesting has remained as consistent and important in her life as painting, and she spends the extra summer hours keeping a large garden and greenhouse thriving at her home in North Ferrisburgh where she lives with her husband, landscape architect and artist Keith Wagner, and their three year old son, Hudson.
