Exhibition Details:

Jane Brooks

The body of Jane Brooks' work is comprised of watercolors. A medium not really suited to her style and technique, but the one she loves. The paintings featured are highly detailed and fine-tuned renderings of objects - still life.

Jane Brooks lives on Lake Champlain- a place of both constant change and stillness. Like many artists, she has been drawing and painting since childhood. Jane grew up in the Finger Lakes region of New York State- a place she returns to each year. Jane studied art and design at Endicott College in Beverly, Massachusetts, earned a BA at Cortland State and a Master's Degree in Education from Elmira College. Over the years she has attended and taught many workshops and studied privately with talented painters whose work she admires. Her first instructor was her grandmother, a gifted gardener and watercolorist. As a small child, Brooks spent many afternoons with her near her old grey garden shed trying to capture the colors in the flower beds and the light of the day. Jane's work has appeared in galleries, juried shows and exhibitions throughout the country. Her paintings hang in private and public collections. Jane has been represented by ARTREPS and Main Floor Editions in Los Angeles, California and by Ariel of France in Houston, Texas.
