Kat Clear and Avery McIntosh Exhibit at Vintage Inspired Lifestyle Marketplace in August

Burlington, VT: (July 26, 2012) Vintage Inspired Lifestyle Marketplace on Flynn Avenue in Burlington is pleased to announce an exhibition entitled Circus Remix, featuring sculpture by Kat Clear and paintings by Avery McIntosh. The exhibition opens with a reception on First Friday, August 3rd from 5-8pm, and runs through the month of August. Vintage Inspired, A vibrant new marketplace for antique dealers, artists and craftspeople, is located at 180 Flynn Avenue, and is open Tuesday – Saturday from 10am to 5pm, Sunday from 12pm to 4pm and closed Mondays.

Vermont sculptor Kat Clear has been part of the Vermont art scene for the last decade. Her sculpture can be seen all around the state and throughout the East Coast. Clear has created functional and whimsical bike racks commissioned by the City of Burlington that reside outside of Burlington Telecom and Radio Bean, public art commissions like 2009's Fabric of Life at Fletcher Allen Health Care and 2007's Queen City Crown at Burlington Town Center. Kat has also created signs for numerous notable area businesses such as Burlington Electric, Bluebird Barbecue, The Green Room and many more. Clear's work has been exhibited locally and nationally recently including the Helen Day Art Center, DesignHaus, the Flyndog Gallery, Shore Institute of the Arts and the New Hope Arts Center. In 2011, Kat was the recipient of Burlington City Arts' 9th annual Barbara Smail Award. More at www.katherineclear.com.

Burlington, Vermont-based artist Avery McIntosh explores the process of creation and destruction in her paintings and prints. Her multi-layered works focus on the investigation of manipulating materials to create a piece. Influenced by painters from the New York School, such as Philip Guston, it might be said that the language used in McIntosh's work stems from a place in between direct representation and abstract expressionism. Avery, a recent graduate of The University of Vermont, Has exhibited her paintings regularly in the Burlington area over the last few years.
